What You Need to Complete Your Income Self-Certification Letter

Account: EXXXXX0048

Dear JACK,

Thank you for contacting us regarding your income self-certification letter.
We've provided some additional information to clarify what is needed.

Please note, if you are providing your self-certified income documentation for an income-driven repayment (IDR) plan request and you haven't applied yet, you can upload this information with your online application at Studentaid.gov/idr instead of sending a letter to Nelnet.

For each taxable income source you must include:

- Gross income (per pay frequency). This also needs to include how many hours per week if you provide an hourly rate.
- Pay frequency (weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, monthly, etc.).
- Source of income
 - Who (name of employer). If you're self-employed, you'll note that here.
 - Where (city/state).
- Must be physically signed and dated by the receiver of the income.

You will find an example of a self-certified letter showing all of the required information attached to this email.

Please make sure that this letter includes your printed name, signature, date, and Nelnet account number. Upload your letter by logging in to Nelnet.studentaid.gov and choosing Upload Documents from the Documents menu. You may also send your letter to Nelnet via email (SubmitMyForms@Nelnet.studentaid.gov) or mail to:

Nelnet

P.O. Box 82565
