The items rented shall always remain the property of Mom Chairs, LLC. The customer is responsible for inspecting the rental items before use and immediately notifying staff of any defects or missing items. The customer agrees to pay for any damage to rental items regardless of cause, except for reasonable wear and tear. The customer also agrees to pay a cleaning fee for items returned significantly dirty. The customer's right of possession terminates on the expiration of the rental period listed on the final invoice. Once the rental period has ended, rental charges continue to accrue for all the time the items are out, not the time they are used.

Guidelines:

If rental items are not returned by the agreed time and due date, you will be charged for each day or partial day beyond the end of the rental period until items are returned. The customer is responsible for returning rentals on time, during regular operating hours, and in the condition in which they were received. Mom Chairs, LLC is not responsible for loading or unloading items into the customer's vehicle, but if capacity allows, may offer to do so and bring items to the car for smaller orders.

Guidelines:

You will be contacted by the driver on the day of the scheduled delivery with an approximate arrival time. The client or assignee is responsible for being on site for the entirety of the delivery window. If no one is present to receive items, a 10-minute grace period will be granted. After 10 minutes, the order will be considered a no-show, canceled, and not eligible for a refund. Availability to reschedule is not guaranteed and, if available, will require an additional drop-off service fee.

Delivery is made to the closest point the truck can park. Additional charges will apply to deliveries made up/ down stairs, elevator use, or any point where extra time and labor are involved. Standard delivery does not include setup and breakdown services unless requested and added when placing the order. Setup requires a floor plan to be sent before the order date, and a person on site to direct and approve a 1-time placement. If this service is requested upon delivery, the driver will call for authorization to accommodate, and for an added service fee. All rental items are to be cleared for removal by the earliest start of the window assigned for pickup. Delays in doing so will result in a $150.00 minimum waiting fee for up to 15 minutes, before a reschedule is required. For orders that remain as standard delivery, equipment will be left stacked in a designated area and expected to be broken down in the same place for pickup. A breakdown service fee will automatically apply if rental items are still up.
